

Should the super-rich pay more tax?
Are tax havens causing global poverty? Do low and middle-earners need a tax break? Should fair tax be the centrepiece of the Government's programme?

Is it Time for Tax Justice?

A seminar presented by:

Speakers

Angela Eagle MP, Exchequer Secretary to the Treasury
Brendan Barber, General Secretary, TUC
Polly Toynbee, Columnist, The Guardian
Richard Murphy, Director, Tax Research

Date 6.30 – 8pm, Wednesday 2 July 2008

Location Church House, Deans Yard, Westminster, London, SW1P 3NZ
(map and directions at: www.churchhouseconf.co.uk/findus/index.shtml)

RSVP to taxjustice@tuc.org.uk or call 020 7467 1204.

Demand for places is expected to be high and will be allocated on a strictly first come, first served basis. Entry is free and all are welcome.